CERTIFICATE:

I HEREBY CERTIFY that R. O. Darbyshire, F. I. McKemy and J. E. Bullock are the duly elected, qualified and acting commissioners of the Three Saints Community ditch, declared by law to be a body corporate under the laws of the State of New Mexico (Sec. 5744) and as such commissioners are duly authorized by law to execute contracts for and in behalf of said community ditch (Sec. 5754):

That said ditch company is in possession of the property described in attached deed, claiming an easement for the operation of said ditches, and that no person claiming adverse to the grantor is in possession of any part of it, so far as can be ascertained by diligent inquiry and investigation.

El Paso, Texas, October 29, 1918.

CERTIFICATE:

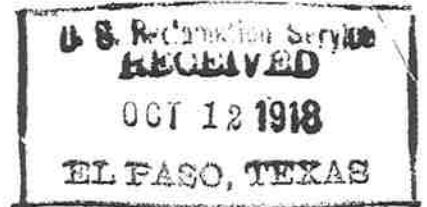

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the community ditch described in attached deed of October 12, 1918, from the Three Saints Community Ditch, was constructed by a voluntary association of land owners, and that there are no deeds of record conveying to the landowners an easement or right of way for said ditches, and that said ditches have been constructed and in existence for more than the statutory period of limitation, so that title by prescription has been acquired.

That said property is not subject to taxation under the laws of the State of New Mexico, and that neither the tax records or other records contain any instrument of writing affording basis of title.

There are no liens against the property, so far as can be ascertained from examination of the records or otherwise.
